

What is the most common media type in the songs database?

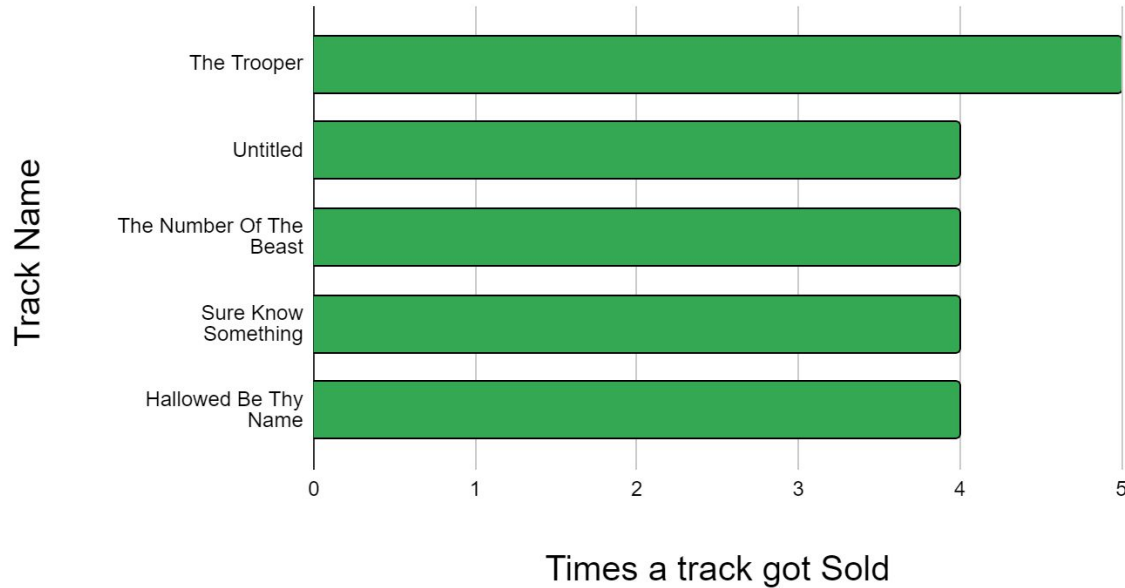

Number of tracks under each different Media type

As we can see in the bar chart on the left side, clearly the most common media type available in the database is MPEG audio files. There are 3034 tracks way further from any other media type.

What is the best selling track?

TOP 5 SELLING TRACKS

The graph shows the 5 most sold tracks, as we can see there are multiple tracks which share the second place with 4 times sold, but only one track can be named the best selling. THE TROOPER is the best selling track, which was sold 5 times.

Who are our top 10 customers regarding the purchases they made?

TOP 10 Customers

This is a bar graph for the top 10 customers identified by their first name (written below the horizontal axis) and their last name (written over the relative bar). Customers are sorted by the amount they spent on total from highest to lower.

Who are the top 3 composers whose music made more sales?

This graph presents the top 3 composers, whose tracks got sold the most and generated highest sales consequently.

Since unit price is almost 1 USD, the quantity and sales are very close.